

CONTENTS

Introduction.....	1
The 25-Point Program of the NSDAP	7
Why Are We Antisemites?	11
August 13th, 1920: The conception of productive work; the development of the northern peoples; the development of Jews as a people; moral versus egoistic conceptions of work; industrial capital versus finance capital; Jewish deconstruction of arts and culture; the necessity of political organizing; nationalism and socialism; audience question-and-answer.
Freedom or Slavery?.....	39
July 28th, 1922: Unrest in Germany; the real root of the problem; industrialization, urbanization, and antisemitism in Western versus Eastern Europe; Aryan socialism; Jewish influence on the right and the left; Bolshevism in Russia; appeal to German youth to join the movement.
The Trial Speeches	65
Hitler's Defense	73
February 26th, 1924: Hitler's political awakening; the nature and tactics of Marxism; French occupation of the Ruhr; the appeal to the ruling triumvirate in Bavaria to launch a coup; General Ludendorff enters the plot; speeches, pistols, and beer mugs; the Putsch; responsible, but not guilty.
Hitler's Closing Arguments.....	93
March 27th, 1924: Might versus right; Germany's downfall; leadership as a duty; answering charges of treason; the positive side of the failed putsch.
The Re-founding of the Movement	101
February 27th, 1925: Why the Party was formed; deep divisions among Germans; the failures of bourgeois nationalism; the importance of women in politics; the current state of the movement; addressing infighting; absolute authority and ultimate responsibility; rebuilding the movement.

Workers of the Hand and Workers of the Mind117

January 18th, 1927: Futility of parliamentary politics; the rift between bourgeoisie and proletariat; failures of the right and of the left; value each by what he gives; industrial versus financial capital; workers of the hand and workers of the mind; class reconciliation as the task of National Socialism.

The Industry Club Speech135

January 26th, 1932: The root cause of Germany's distress; the principle of inequality; democracy is to politics what communism is to economics; class and political divisions; the importance of unity; where Germany would be without the Nazis; the power and dedication of the National Socialist movement.

Adolf Hitler's First Radio Broadcast as Chancellor157

February 1st, 1933: The problems facing Germany (economic depression, unemployment, division, violence); restoring unity; four-year plans; saving the workers and the peasants; economic reforms; Germany and the community of nations; "Give us four years!"

Address to the Reichstag Regarding the Purges of the Night of the Long Knives169

July 13th, 1934: Misfits and malcontents; questionable promotions of SA officers; lack of education in National Socialist worldview among new SA officers; abuses of newfound power by SA members; plot to disband the Army; Röhm fails to right his wrongs; plotting insurrection; Hitler finally cracks down; the aftermath, the future, and an offer of atonement.

Reichstag Speech: Four Years of National Socialism193

January 30th, 1937: Triumphs of the National Socialist revolution; the economy must serve the people; nationalizing banks and railways; answering allegations of isolationism; German international relations; German rearmament; future plans.

Address to the National Socialist Women's League.....	211
September 10th, 1937: A women's movement in Germany; difference from previous women's and men's organizations; gender antagonism versus gender relations; the importance of women; maximizing manliness and womanliness; helping men and women come together.
On Church and State – Excerpt.....	223
January 30th, 1939: Answering allegations of German hostility to religion; German funding for the churches and church privileges; the hypocrisy of secular liberal democracies; no special political privileges for priests; performative sympathy for oppressed dissidents – except National Socialist dissidents.
Declaration of War on the United States of America.....	231
December 11th, 1941: Moscow's intentions; preemptive invasion of Russia; the idea of Europe; foreign volunteers; America and Germany; Hitler and Roosevelt – two different life paths; Britain and America sabotage peace proposals; Roosevelt's escalations; Germany determined to fight for its rights.
The Führer's Final Radio Broadcast to the German People.....	247
January 30th, 1945: Past obstacles overcome; necessity of struggle and national self-assertion; the folly of pacifism; equal rights and equal duties; the future of the democracies in the face of communism; the duty to resist; the fate of traitors; resistance until final victory.
Bibliography.....	257
Suggestions for Further Reading.....	261